

Pawhuska and Bartlesville Plan Big Reception to John Fields on Wednesday

BIG BARBECUE TO BE GIVEN FIELDS

Six Bees to Be Killed Today for Wednesday Evening Meeting

TULSANS ARE INVITED

Col. Joe Bartles, of Round-up Fame, in Charge of Eats at City Park

Special to The World.

BARTLESVILLE, Sept. 4.—Republicans of Washington county and northern Oklahoma are planning a big reception here Wednesday night to John Fields, the republican candidate for governor of Oklahoma.

Preparations are being made for what many say will be the biggest republican mass meeting held in this section of the state.

A big barbecue will be held from 7 to 9 p. m. at city park, with plenty of barbecued beef, cooked under the personal direction of Col. Joe Bartles, of Round-up fame, and coffee for the crowd. Arrangements are perfected to feed 2,500 or 3,000 visitors.

Six big bees will be killed tomorrow morning and put over the hot coals at noon. The bees are expected to be done by the time that the program begins at 4 p. m.

Meet Him at Pawhuska.

The Bartlesville committee, headed by Dr. R. D. Root, has not only finished its preparations, but has been co-operating with republicans from other towns and cities, and the doctor said that he expected at least 2500 visiting republicans here to hear Fields.

Fields speaks at Pawhuska at 2 p. m. and immediately after he has concluded there, the Bartlesville reception committee will rush him over the Osage scenic highway to this city. They will go on to the barbecue grounds and promptly at 4 p. m. the republican leader will make his address here.

The verbal thrusts that Fields has been directing towards the democratic party, especially Governor Robertson and Mayor Walton, have keyed the local republicans up to such a pitch that they are confident that he will sweep Washington county in November.

Although Osage county is almost a 100 per cent democratic district, republicans from that county say that Fields will pull a large vote.

Many republicans from Tulsa, Sapulpa and adjacent towns expect to drive to Bartlesville Wednesday to hear Fields make another attack upon the Robertson maladministration.

SUSPEND POLICEMAN

One-Armed Officer Accused of Assault Upon Prisoner; Freed and Then Re-arrested.

Special to The World.

BARTLESVILLE, Sept. 4.—"Slim" Hoffman, a one-armed policeman of the Bartlesville police force, was arrested on a charge sworn to by Wendell Phillips, charging the policeman with assault with a deadly weapon. Hoffman arrested Phillips last Thursday night and he alleged that the officer struck Phillips with his billy and that after Phillips was taken to police station, it is claimed Hoffman again struck him. Phillips was tried in police court Friday evening on charges preferred by the policeman, but was discharged by Mayor Buck. Hoffman was rearrested by Constable Morton immediately after the police court trial and was arraigned in Justice Hickey's court, where his bond was placed at $1,000. Mayor Buck and Chief of Police Gaston signed Hoffman's bond. Hoffman has been suspended from the police force pending his trial. At police court trial Phillips' attorney showed the court that the arrest of Phillips was illegal and that there had been no violation of the city's ordinance.

Prison Agent Held Up.

CHICKEN, Sept. 4.—Prison Agent Robertson was held up and after the two handouts took $45 from the cash drawer was forced to accompany them two miles to the country south of town. He was then told to return and they struck out toward the Dog Creek hills. Just as Robertson got back to the depot, Deputy Sheriff Duke Lettler arrived having been called and requested to make an investigation by the Clarence opera who could not get Chicken. The officers lost track of the robbers near Bushyhead.

PARE 1922 BUDGET

Bond Fund Hit Hardest in Delaware in Order That Legal Limits Be Fully Complied With.

Special to The World.

JAY, Sept. 4.—Called together by the chairman, County Judge J. C. Jones, the excise board held its first business session to consider the new estimates for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1932. The board was immediately confronted with the proposition of cutting appropriations $11,000, in order to stay within the legal limits. The county estimate, as submitted and approved by the excise board amounted to $56,122.30, with about $5,000 available assets to be deducted from this amount. The various departments were cut as follows: Executive, $750; administrative, $1,175; revenue, $1,000; judicial, $1,700; curative, $200; charitable, $2,000; general government, $250; road construction, $4,200.

Every officer was compelled to reduce his estimate and the road department cheerfully. The roads suffered more than any other department being cut $4,200. The fund for the poor and insane, for widows was cut $2,000. The board adopted unanimously the following levies for county government, 8 mills for general, and 1-1/2 mills for sinking fund, making a total of 9-1/2 mills, the same as last year.
